He will report for active duty November 10, according to letters to friends here.

Phil Kearney writes from Australia that he has been granted a one-week furlough. He says that after 22 long months of military discipline it is good to be able to get up when he likes, go where he pleases and eat what he wants. Freedom is a great thing but you don't realize it until you lose it, he opined. He planned to take a 1000-mile trip during the week to see as much of Australia as possible. He has been stationed on New Guinea.

FIRST SNOW FALLS HERE; RAINFALL FOR SEASON 1.09 IN.

The Truckee-Tahoe area "enjoyed" its first snowfall of the season on Sunday, October 17 when the ground was covered for a few hours during the evening. Rains replaced the snow threat and since that time a mild rain in the lower country and snow on the peaks has predominated.

All roads remain open and in good condition without chains being required.

Although the blustery weather during the past four or five days would indicate more, the Forest Service here reported only .48 of an inch of precipitation. During the lightning storms two weeks ago, H. I. Snider, local forest ranger, said .61 of an inch was recorded to bring the season's total to 1.09 inches.

As a result of the recent storms the lookout stations have been closed and forest employees put to work on burning accumulated brush, repairing roads, etc.

In the electric storm early this month, Snider said, two trees within 50 feet of the ranger station here were struck. No damage was done.

TRUCKMEN TOLD OF FUTURE CHECKUP

Wholesale and retail distributors today were told by the Office of Defense Transportation that ODT examiners would now begin checking maps of delivery routes and areas which distributors were required to prepare by Monday, October 11 under the restricted delivery order.

HIGHWAYS READY FOR HEAVY TRAVEL

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 21. (UP)—Charles H. Purcell, state public works director, today declared that California highways are well prepared for expected heavy traffic increases when the war against Japan is accelerated.

He said that the last legislature appropriated $6,000,000 for highways maintenance in the 1943-45 biennium with the promise that more would be available if needed.

About half of the $6,000,000 was spent in reinforcing the state's most important routes this summer and the remainder will be spent during the coming summer, he said.

Tags are on sale at the offices of the State Division of Fish and Game, and sport ing goods stores.

While the pheasant season doesn't open until November 28, H. R. Dunbar, chief of the bureau of licenses, advises hunters to get their tags now.

Car Wrecked By Train; Bay Boy Is Held In Jail

The boy was accused of taking the car, owned by his mother without her consent. He explained that he took the old emigrant trail road to see where it would lead him. He was doing alright until the car skidded onto the track and he was unable to move it before the train arrived. The train stopped and the young man was brought to Truckee and held pending disposition of his case.

The car was brought to the Truckee Garage for repair. The boy left the car before the collision and escaped injury, Officer Gautsche said.

BANK OF AMERICA EXCEEDS BOND QUOTA

A. P. Giannini this week celebrated the birthday of the Bank of America which he founded 39 years ago, by announcing that a drive by employees of the bank to sell $300,000,000 in war bonds between August 2 and the end of next January had already gone over the top after only 11 weeks of the projected 26 weeks campaign.

Personally addressing the statewide staff through a statewide radio hook-up, Giannini said, "The only word I can think of to describe this response is: MAGNIFICENT!"

"But let's not waste too much time feeling prideful about our big achievement," he told employees, "except to realize that no goal is impossible. This campaign is not over yet. We embarked on a six months Victory Drive, and although the adding machines show that we have gone over our statewide quota it simply means that we have exceeded our expectations. We are only ahead of schedule. We must keep going."

He promised that the strong advertising campaign in California newspapers to which much of the war bond sales record was attributed, would be continued through to the end of January.

Emil De Choedens, who owns a home along the shores of Donner Lake, reported to Constable N. F. Dolley said that no trace of the culprits has been found.

Listed among the missing articles, De Choedens reported, were 90 bed blankets, waffle irons, electric toasters, dishes, 3 electric clocks, tents, six cots, fishing equipment, six dozen pillow cases, fire extinguishers, four electric motors, tools, two outboard boat motors, rugs, robes and a variety of other things.

NEW PROPOSALS TO SEPARATE FOOD DRINKING OFFERED

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 21. (UP)—James H. Quinn of the state board of equalization has endorsed a recent proposal that a constitutional amendment be enacted to permit operation of taverns as such and eliminate requirements that food be served in all California drinking places.

The proposal was made last week as an outcome of hearings before a legislative interim committee on juvenile delinquency.

Quinn said he advocated state legislation to provide for three separate types of establishments in order to eliminate the presence of children in bars. They were:

Taverns in which no minors would be allowed under any condition.

Restaurants serving liquor, which would be unrestricted for children.

Restaurants serving liquor, in which children would be allowed only in the company of an adult.

Quinn said that state law should require that each place be clearly posted on the outside. Under present law, he said, there is no legal way to exclude minors from bars.

ENGLE HAS POSTS IN MILITARY ACADEMY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Congressman Clair Engle today announced that he had several appointments open to the Naval Academy at Annapolis and the West Point Military Academy.

He requested any young men between the ages of 17 and 22 interested in appointment to either academy to write him immediately. Congressman Engle pointed out that men now in the service who lived in the district are eligible for the appointments and can be sent to a preparatory school for study for the examinations.

"It is important," Engle stated, "to secure the best possible material for the future leaders of our armed forces. Although the appointments are limited I am in hopes every young man seriously interested in a military career will apply so that I will have his name on file for consideration."

by WALTER M. BARRETT

Well, folks, it looks very like the good old summer time has spent itself for another few months but there are few who can deny that it has been anything but a good season insofar as business conditions locally were concerned. What with travel restrictions, the scarcity of young men and many of our citizens engaged in war work in other cities, we naturally expected a decline in local business but all reports indicate that in spite of these handicaps, business in Truckee has stood up remarkably well, showing our stability, so necessary in prospering communities. While we can not anticipate a whale of a winter in the offing, neither can we see cause for pessimism. We have but to glance back at our previous war-time seasons to gain an idea of what the future holds. Our honest prediction is that we will have a normal winter in Truckee and vicinity.

This is the time of the year we feel that a warning to motorists is not amiss. While our highways are excellent, with wide easy curves, smooth straightaways and easy inclines, there is a new danger in the wet and off-times icy surfaces. Care should be exercised on highways at all times, but with the advent of fall weather and its rains, snow and ice, this normal care should be doubled. Skidding is hard to avoid so be safe and drive slower. Cars are too scarce these days to take the chance of wrecking them even if injuries are avoided.

Truckee this week suffered a heavy and irreplaceable loss in the death of our good friend and neighbor, Al Fontana. A quiet man in disposition gentle to a point of self-denial, Al has done much to promote community development and enterprise in our region. Starting from a humble beginning, he has proven again that American opportunity, coupled with hard work, honesty and service to his family, friends and community are still important rounds in the ladder to success. We will miss Al more than we can express.

ROTARY CLUB TO GREET GOVERNOR

The Rotary Club of Truckee will welcome Andrew L. Haight, governor of district 105 of Rotary International here on October 25. The district includes 48 clubs in Nevada and northern California.

Haight is an attorney at Fallon and is a charter member of the club at that place.

Haight will visit the local club to advise and assist President Dee W. Bowen, Secretary G. E. Hofmann and other officers of the club on matters pertaining to the club administration and Rotary activities.

LOCAL HUNTERS AT NEVADA DUCK HUNT

With the opening of the duck season in Nevada and California last Friday, a number of local hunters formed parties, pooled their limited gas supplies and returned a day or two later with limits. Publicity that there are far more ducks than usual, however, was discounted by the local hunters. Included in one group to take advantage of opening day were Elden Tonini, Frank Gaiennie, Walt Loynd, H. T. Langille and E. L. Loynd.

CLAIR GOODES ARE PARENTS OF SON

A. P. Fontana Is Dead Following Sudden Attack

Last Rites Held Here For Prominent Truckee Businessman

Death Saturday night at a hospital in Reno called one of Truckee's most prominent residents when Arnold Paul Fontana expired on his 44th birthday, following a sudden illness. Although in failing health for some time, Fontana Friday was able to conduct his business as usual at Fontana's Laundry and attended the rationing board meeting that afternoon. Saturday morning he was stricken violently ill and was rushed to the hospital. A blood transfusion failed to aid him and that evening he died.

A native of Switzerland, Fontana was brought to the United States by his parents at the age of three years.

They lived for a while at Verdi, Nevada and later at Loyalton. Most of his life, however, was spent in Truckee where he established and developed Fontana's Laundry, one of the most thriving industries in the entire region.

Fontana's life was typical of the Horatio Alger heroes. Starting from a washing machine which his mother operated while the energetic son managed the business and collected the wash and delivered it in an express wagon, Fontana through his own untiring efforts built up a thriving business and was able with the aid of his wife to soon attain the present establishment.

Fontana was an unselfish supporter of all worthwhile community affairs. He was a director of the Truckee Chamber of Commerce, past chancellor of Summit Lodge No. 54, Knights of Pythias and first vice president of the Truckee Lions Club and a member of the local war price and rationing board. He never refused to lend his valuable assistance in the promotion of community development and his friends agree that this unselfish tendency and hard, sincere work contributed to his untimely death.

Beside his wife, Gladys, who has been his business partner and constant companion, Fontana leaves his mother, Mrs. Carolyn Fontana and his grandmother, Mrs. Spagnoli and a brother, Robert and a sister, Mrs. R. T. Henderson, all of Truckee. Miss Dolly Henderson was a niece.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at Odd the Fellows hall here. Summit Lodge had charge of the rites under the direction of F. W. Gaiennie, acting chancellor commander. Interment was in the Truckee Catholic cemetery beside the body of his father, who died here two years ago. The Laity Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The huge attendance at the rites and the beautiful floral pieces were evidence of the esteem which the community held for the deceased. Sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

In memory of their first vice president members of the Truckee Lions Club cancelled their regular weekly meeting last night. Yesterday the club members attended the funeral in a body.

PACE NAMED ON UTILITY BOARD

America needs men who can STAY on the job. 90% of lost time in war work industries is due to sickness—not accidents. This work loss will reach a high peak this winter unless all workers strictly adhere to the rules of health.

Look at these figures! In 1941 illness caused a loss of 100 million man-days of work. Upset stomachs were responsible for the loss of 25 million man-days. The common cold caused a loss of 45 million man-days. Eye strain and ailments caused a loss of 35 million man-days. Take care of yourself OFF the job—at home as well as on the job. Plan and eat nutritionally balanced meals for body strength and energy. Keep your home heated at healthful temperature, neither stuffy hot or goose-pimplily chilly. When you use your eyes give them adequate light for restful, comfortable seeing.

Conserve your health. Do your part in the National Health Protection Program this winter.

BUCK SEASON AT LAKE CLOSES WITH LITTLE SUCCESS

TAHOE CITY, Oct. 21.— Buck hunting season closed in the Tahoe area on a very quiet note, with small success being reported during the last few days. Fishing season is over, except in the back country, where limited success is evident. Just before the closing of the deer season here, the season opened in Nevada, a number of Tahoe residents securing licenses to hunt there.

Among those reported to have had success in Nevada to date are Stanley Martin, who brought in a buck and a doe and the Stanley Pomin party which brought back six bucks last Sunday from the Nevada country. Last day success was achieved by the party of which Bill LaMarr accompanied by Captain Willard were members. Willard shot one buck and another member of the party also got one. Bill brought in a small buck earlier in the season.

Last Wednesday Constable Harry Johanson, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dyer of Auburn packed into Diamond Crossing to camp for a week or so to try their luck for a last minute buck and possibly a bear and the bear season opened October 16 here. The party has not returned.

SEICKERTS ARE PARENTS OF SON

TAHOE CITY, Oct. 21.— Arriving some six weeks before he was officially anticipated, little Michael David Seickert, four-pounds and two ounces checked in at Dr. Hudson's private hospital in Reno last Thursday. He is the second child born to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Seickert, residents of the Tahoe Park ranger station, where Mr. and Mrs. Seickert is fire patrolman. Both mother and baby are doing nicely, according to latest reports from the hospital. Congratulations to both of them.

The most successful trip we have heard of to date was that of Mr. and Mrs. John Rayburn of Kings Beach who with Russell Farley and Grass Valley and seven others, packed into the region of Martis Peak with Bud Jones where they camped for a week. The party of ten brought out 14 deer, some of them the large mule deer variety.

Friday, October 15, the duck season opened at Tahoe, hunters changing rifles for shotguns. Only a few were reported to have secured limits among them Charlie and Jimmie Swanson and J. E. Pomin. Stormy weather, prevailing here, will improve the hunting.

C. W. ATHERTON, 72, PIONEER OF TAHOE EXPIRES AT HOME

TAHOE CITY, Oct. 21.— Last Sunday residents of Lake Tahoe were shocked to learn of the sudden death of one of its oldest pioneers, Charles W. Atherton, 72, at his home in Fallon. A heart attack was believed by members of his family to have been the cause.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock today at Fallon at the funeral parlor in that city.

Early Sunday morning Mr. Atherton left his home in his car to do a bit of duck hunting in the vicinity, but en route his car was sideswiped by another machine, throwing it into a ditch. He jacked up three of the wheels and worked for some time before he was able to drive home.

Upon arriving his wife, Katie and niece, Miss Margaret Luhrs were concerned over his apparent illness and sent for a doctor. When the latter arrived Mr. Atherton failed to respond to treatment and expired at 5 p.m.

The Athertons were early day proprietors of the present Atherton grocery store in town now being operated by their nephew. Old timers estimate they were in business 26 years up until 1921 at which time Atherton's doctor advised him to seek a different climate. The family moved to Fallon where they built a comfortable home. They spent part of each summer at Tahoe where they own considerable property in the Bittencourt Tract. They returned to their Fallon home little more than a week ago.

Mr. Atherton leaves his wife and the niece at Fallon, his nephew, Weller Atherton of Tahoe and a sister Mrs. E. P. Mathison of San Francisco. His brother, George Atherton, past 80, died last March.

The entire Tahoe region will mourn the passing of this pioneer resident who leaves behind a host of friends and on a known enemy.

GASOLINE MUST GO TO WAR, NOT TO HUNTERS, SAYS OPA

Special gasoline rations for hunters are "simply out of the question," Gilbert McNeil, district mileage representative of the Office of Price Administration announced this week.

"In addition to the present very serious tire situation, Petroleum Administrator, Harold L. Ickes announced today that war demands require a cut of 28,000 barrels a day in our western gasoline consumption," McNeil said.

Immediately after newspapers carried stories that some Nevada rationing boards were issuing deer hunters gasoline for 200 miles of driving, regional OPA authorities declared the practice was illegal and stated that no gasoline for hunting purposes could be allowed.

"For many months we have been concerned in the west chiefly with restricting mileage to conserve tires," McNeil said. "The tire problem is definitely here and we will be 8,000,000 tires short of our national needs during the balance of the year."

Jack Starratt, son of Mrs. A. M. Anderson of Tahoe is planning to reenter medical school to complete his education as a doctor. Having failed to pass the required physical examination to permit his entrance into the armed services, Jack is anxious to do his best and feels that the need for skilled medical men will be deeply felt and he wants to prepare himself for the rehabilitation of returning soldiers and sailors.

TAHOE LETTER

To the Service Men

From SWANEE

Tahoe City, Oct. 17.

Dear Tahoeites:

As I write you this Sunday night, a chill wind sweeps through the rain-soaked treetops and a light covering of snow whitens the highest mountain peaks for Tahoe had a second storm today, one which greeted us upon making and continued most of the day. Duck hunters who left warm beds to wing the wily honkers and their cousins, shivered and cussed in the early morning deluge which included heavy winds, not conducive to accurate shooting and rain, hail and snow. Some successes were scored but few braved the blustery weather.

Only yesterday my son and I reamed through the parched forests and I gathered a large armful of dry grasses, pods, thistle and pine drops with which to make a winter bouquet. The air was warm and a soft summer breeze was blowing, but today all is changed and it looks as though winter might actually be on its way to stay a while. Forest officials will be grateful for the heavy drenching given the area as danger of forest fires was extremely great up till today.

Had a nice letter last week from one of our subscribers, Mrs. M. A. Lopes, of San Leandro, who has been able, due to war conditions, to spend only a fraction of the season with her family at their lovely Timberland tract summer home this year. She read with much amusement and interest of the depredations of the deer in their neighborhood gardens, but expressed only very mild annoyance, so trivial was the incident in comparison to the great worldwide problems of today. Their son, Melvin, in the service, is kept busy with his duties and is grateful there is little time to reminisce. He still remains in this area. The family closely follows the news of the region in the Sierra Sun, Mrs. Lopes wrote.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Anderson of Tahoe Cedars were agreeably surprised last week when they received the announcement from their youngest son, Eugene, 22, Coastguardsman 2-c, at Seattle that on Saturday last he was married to Miss Gladys Ross, 22, of that city. Although they had few details of the wedding, the ceremony was held in church there. The newlyweds are hoping to join members of the bridegroom's family in California around Christmas time.

Sherwood and Donnie Prusso dropped over to see me Wednesday morning to say goodbye, as their dad motored up from the bay region to get them that afternoon. He had received additional time to visit in San Leandro with members of his family before assuming charge of Montgomery Ward's store in Long Beach. The boys related their experience on their last day of hunting here and indeed it came close to developing into tragedy. For the pair had gone into the back country back of Ward Peak and decided to climb some rugged cliffs beyond. After some strenuous rockscaling, they found themselves on a sheer, perpendicular peak from which it appeared impossible to descend. They had several anxious hours and numerous panicky escapes from falling before they finally found themselves safely back on terra-firma. It was with regret that they departed their favorite playground but Sherwood plans to enter war work and Donnie, we believe will soon try his luck as a student aviator.

Heard last week that Charles Henrikson, son of the Harry Henriksons of Lake Forest is now a student flier in the vicinity of Pasadena.

This fulfills Charley's fondest wishes, if we recollect correctly. Good luck, Chuck!

Also learned that Miss Helen Sweetland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Sweetland of Piedmont, whose summer home stands high on a hill overlooking Tahoe near Eagle Rock, is also attending a flying school near Reno, planning to take her place in the sky, vacated by her gallant brother, Captain Ted Sweetland, a casualty of the second world war.

On Friday Carl Becholdt, Sr., celebrated another birthday, son Bill at Camp Hale, sending along a telegram of felicitations. The senior Becholdts are in receipt of some priceless souvenirs of Camp Hale and Bill. Recently on her visit there Mrs. Becholdt was presented with an enlarged silhouette picture of Bill against a background of trees and sky which is most unusual. It was taken by one of the expert photographers now in the army there. They also have a new photo of Bill in uniform which is a honey and a cartoon drawn of Bill by one of his buddies. All pleasant reminders which help to break the gloom thoughts parents are apt these days to harbor secretly.

Mrs. Hazel LaMarr has for her houseguest her sister, Mrs. Cecil Ballentine of Pasadena. The latter is the wife of Pfc. Ballentine, stationed at the present in Canada.

And now another Tahoe patriot has joined the ranks of Uncle Sam's army, but this time it is neither WAC, WAVE nor Pvt.—but Duke, Doberman Pinscher, the family pet of the William Shiftons, residents of the Bittencourt Tract in town, now employed in war work at Richmond. Bill is a shipfitter and his wife, Ruth is driving a truck, so Duke, always of an adventurous disposition, took his six weeks training and passed all his tests 100 per cent! The dogs are given basic training at the Army's War Dog Reception and Training Center at San Carlos and are sent on duty to accompany a marine at Mare Island navy yard, where the animals put in a four hour shift with every third day off. Duke, now a marine sentry, has other relatives from the Tahoe area, his father being Pooch, the pet of Postmaster Janet Watson and his greatuncle is Lt. Col. C. B. Pederson's dog Varney.

A bit of sun will break through the clouds of war for the Roy Stark family of the Dollar Estate soon, for their son, Jay, 22, AMM 2-c of the navy transport service, will be married in the Holy Family Church at Glendale to Miss Dorothy Irene Bethel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Bethel of that city Sunday, October 24. Jay will be provided with a plane to fly to his wedding from Oakland and shipmates will serve as ushers. The couple will arrive at Tahoe soon after the wedding for a ten day honeymoon with the parents of the bridegroom. Also coming home for a few days to join the reunion will be Harold Stark, another son in submarine service, who has just returned to San Diego following an absence of six months active duty. He called a few nights ago to inform his family he would join them for a few days. Following his visit here he will go to the east coast.

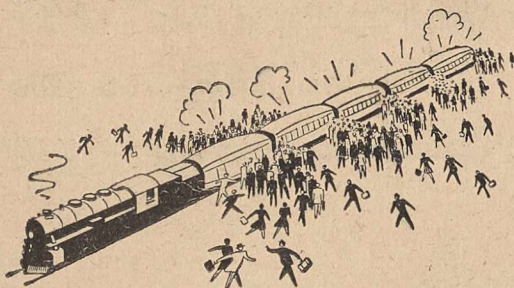

Floyd Carnell left Tahoe Tuesday for a visit with his family, many of who he has not seen for years, in West Virginia. He planned to stop over a weekend in Oklahoma to visit son, Dick at Camp Gruber. The latter writes that he has passed all his tests. Miss Florence Vernon, assisting in the library, sent Dick Sinbad the Soldier, by Wren, Saturday, a gift from the local library.

Leave you again for another week, as the winds still moan through the towering pines, and clouds race across the obscured face of the moon. Winter is moving into Tahoe on swift unerring feet, even while autumn is still in her heart. Even the latest storm has not destroyed the yellow gold which quivers upon the aspen boughs, but uncertain is their future at this writing.

Good news still emanates from our radios and increased certainty grows in our hearts of complete victory... May it come before the end of 1943! Our very best wishes for your well being and good luck, good cheer and good hunting to you all....

As ever, SWANEE.

Something to think about before you plan a train trip

The railroad is a war industry. All train space is needed now to carry people doing war jobs and men in the armed forces. Such travelers should not be delayed. Every time you don't make an unnecessary train trip you aid the war drive by just that much.

Going to call tonight, when he's off duty. He won't have much time and that call means a lot to him. Might be to a mother or dad or sweetheart right in your town or on your street. It can be as close and near to you as that.

You can help him get better service if you don't do any Long Distance calling of your own between 7 and 10 each night. That's about the only time he can get to the telephone.
